If you're not living on the edge, you're taking up too much room. Bob Proctor

Before ye seek for riches, seek ye for the kingdom of God. And after ye have obtained a hope in Christ, ye shall obtain riches if ye seek them; and ye will seek them for the intent to do good—to clothe the naked, and to feed the hungry, and to liberate the captive, and administer relief to the sick and the afflicted. Jacob 2: 18,19 Book of Mormon

If I were to tell you one of the most important laws of life that I have learned, I should say this: The good things...that which is desirable, that which tends to elevate, glorify and exalt...must be paid for in advance. (The opposite items can be paid for afterwards.) Good must be earned. Boyd K. Packer

Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. You must each make up your own mind as to how much you should give. Don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. For God loves the person who gives cheerfully. And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. As the Scriptures say, Godly people give generously to the poor. Their good deeds will never be forgotten. For God is the one who gives seed to the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will give you many opportunities to do good, and he will produce a great harvest of generosity in you. Yes, you will be enriched so that you can give even more generously. II Corinthians 9: 6-11 NLT

The first step to building wealth is to spend less than you make. Brian Koslow

If we study the lives of great men and women carefully and unemotionally we find that, invariably, greatness was developed, tested and revealed through the darker periods of their lives. One of the largest tributaries of the river of greatness is always the stream of adversity. Cavett Robert

I never could have done without the habits of punctuality, order and diligence—the determination to concentrate myself on one subject at a time. Charles Dickens

Learn how to fail intelligently for failing is one of the greatest arts in the world. Charles Kettering

I believe the single most significant decision I can make on a day-to-day basis is my choice of attitude. It is more important than my past, my education, my bankroll, my successes or failures, fame or pain, what other people think of me or say about me, my circumstances, or my position. Attitude keeps me going or cripples my progress. It alone fuels my fire or assaults my hope. When my attitudes are right, there is no barrier too high, no valley too deep, no dream too extreme, no challenge too great for me. Charles Swindoll

A single conversation across the table with a wise man is worth a month's study of books. Chinese Proverb

You cannot prevent the birds of sorrow from flying over your head, but you can prevent them from building nests in your hair. - Chinese Proverb

You and I do not see things as they are. We see things as we are. Herb Cohen

Everybody has their own private Mount Everest they were put on this earth to climb. You may never reach the summit; for that you will be forgiven. But if you don't make at least one serious attempt to get above the snow-line, years later you will find yourself lying on your deathbed, and all you will feel is emptiness. Hugh Macleod

God has given gifts to each of you from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Manage them well so that God's generosity can flow through you. Are you called to be a speaker? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Are you called to help others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. I Peter 4: 10-11

Tell those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which will soon be gone. But their trust should be in the living God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. Tell them to use their money to do good.

They should be rich in good works and should give generously to those in need, always being ready to share with others whatever God has given them. By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may take hold of real life. I Tim 6: 17-19

Nobody succeeds beyond his or her wildest expectations unless he or she begins with some wild expectations. Ralph Charell

Hoist the sails of your own spirit to catch the winds of God. Ralph Sockman.

You've got to jump off cliffs and build your wings on the way down. Ray Bradbury

I never wanted to be famous, but I always wanted to be great. Ray Charles

You are never given a dream without also being given the power to make it true. You may have to work for it, however. Richard Bach

Self help is an oxymoron. Richard Eyre

Maturity begins on the day we accept responsibility for our own actions.
Richard L. Evans

Your direction is more important than your speed. Richard L. Evans

Begin to free yourself at once by doing all that is possible with the means you have, and as you proceed in this spirit the way will open for you to do more. Robert Collier

In every adversity there lies the seed of an equivalent advantage. In every defeat is a lesson showing you how to win the victory next time. Robert Collier

Plant the seed of desire in your mind and it forms a nucleus with power to attract to itself everything needed for its fulfillment. Robert Collier

The first principle of success is desire -- knowing what you want. Desire is the planting of your seed. Robert Collier

Fear melts when you take action toward a goal you really want. Robert G. Allen

Rejection reveals your character. Robert G. Allen

Some people are motivated by visualizing themselves reaching their dream. Some people are motivated by the nightmare of not reaching it. Do both. Robert G. Allen

Life is a free fall parachute jump. Pray all the way down and hope for a safe landing. Robert G. Allen

Life is a mirror. You get what you see. If you project anger into the mirror, that is what you get back. If you project joy into the mirror, it reflects joy right back to you.

Failure for failure. Success for success. What you project is what is reflected back to you. Robert G. Allen

What kind of believer are you? Do you believe IN God?. Or do you believe God? There is a major distinction.

People who believe in God, simply acknowledge the existence of a Higher Power. People who believe God believe Him enough to do what He says.
Robert G. Allen

You're not selling products. You're creating relationships. Robert G. Allen

If service is the rent you pay for your existence on this earth, are you behind in your rent? (Better pay up before you receive your eviction notice.)
Robert G. Allen

Ultimately, the product you sell is love—manifested and materialized.
Robert G. Allen

What is the opposite of abundance? It's not scarcity.

It's greed.

Greed is the belief that there is not enough for everyone, so you'd better grab yours now. What is the opposite of love? It's not hate. It's fear.

Fear is the belief that someone or something can hurt you. Robert G. Allen

You are only as powerful as your mentors. Robert G. Allen

Many things can make you rich, but only a few things can enrich you.
Robert G. Allen
